KENARD GIBBS '86

VIBE: The Prism for the World of Urban Culture

Thursday, June 7th

Cocktails at 6:30 PM, Presentation at 7:00 PM

Price is $10.

The Williams Club welcomes members and guests to an exciting talk with alumnus Kenard Gibbs '86, president of the foremost trailblazer in urban magazine publishing, VIBE. Rejoining Vibe Magazine this year as president, Mr. Gibbs is instrumental in the strategic positioning and growth of the company's management, as well as overseeing the advertising, event marketing and public relations departments.

Pop culture brand names such as MTV and Vibe continue to bring urban culture, specifically music, to the masses. The acceptance of urban music within the mainstream has created a unique sub-culture which affects our society as a whole. Mr. Gibbs will speak on the impact urban music has on popular culture today.

Mr. Gibbs originally joined Vibe immediately after its launch in 1993, ultimately rising to Midwest Sales Director. Prior to Vibe, he worked for the Leo Burnett Company as a client service executive and developed advertising campaigns and retail advertising strategies for

BEAR MARKET

From May through August the Williams Club will offer a set of menu items called the BEAR MARKET SPECIALS in both dining rooms. We realize that all of our members have been somehow frustrated by the sliding financial markets and escalating utility prices, and in an effort to soothe your financial hangover, the Executive Chef will showcase a variety of items at reduced rates for the season.

We hope these items will ease some of the pain in your wallet. An added feature to your meal will be if the S&P 500 is up during your lunch or finishes up for the day, you will receive a free glass of wine courtesy of your host, Henri Roque.

Williamstown Theater Festival & Arts Trip

Friday, June 22nd to Sunday June 24th.

Bus leaves from the Club on Friday at 7:00 PM, returns to the Club Sunday at approximately 6:00 PM.

Package price is $425 per person; $700 for groups of two.

Price without theater tickets is $355 per person; $575 for groups of two.

Williamstown in 2001 offers such a great program that members have already been calling us about this year's Arts Trip! This year features two exciting productions at the Williamstown Theater Festival, a dazzling exhibit of impressionists at the Clark and a wide array of offerings at the Williams College Museum of Art in celebration of its 75th Birthday. The trip package includes a two night stay at the centrally located Williams Inn, tickets to both Theater Festival performances on Saturday the 23rd and a gourmet dinner on the bus Friday night. There is a reduced package available for members who do not wish to attend the theater productions. Below are descriptions of each WTF production you'll see and some of the highlights of the two Williamstown museums.

ONE MO'TIME--Starring BJ CROSBY of SMOKEY JOE'S CAFE & ROZ RYAN of DREAMGIRLS and AMEN--There's going to be a hot time in the old town tonight! This show recreates New Orleans' Lyric Theater in 1926, home to the blues legends Bessie Smith and Ma Rainey among others. Four performers and a five-piece band belt out Charleston, rags, cakewalks and other hip-swinging, toe-tapping hits of the Vaudeville Age. Time Magazine calls the show's music, "a joyful noise." Written and directed by Vernel Bagneris who will also reprise the starring role he originated in the show's Off-Broadway run in 1979.

BUFFALO GAL--Starring MARY TYLER MOORE & MICHAEL GROSS of TV's FAMILY TIES--This is the world premiere of a new comedy by A. R. Gurney about art imitating life (or is it life imitating art?). A celebrated actress returns to her hometown of Buffalo to play the lead in the regional theatre's production of The Cherry Orchard. When her grandmother's house comes up for sale, her high school sweetheart comes courting, and her lines don't come to mind, her life becomes... well, positively Chekhovian.

IMPRESSION: PAINTING QUICKLY IN FRANCE, 1860-1890 at the Clark. In its only North American appearance, this exhibition explores those aspects of Impressionist painting -- spontaneity and improvisation -- that so challenged many of its early viewers. It brings together paintings by the leading artists of the movement -- Manet, Monet, Renoir, Morisot, and Sisley -- that were made rapidly in one or only a few working sessions. Though these paintings were thought to resemble oil sketches, traditionally conceived as mere preparations for more elaborately executed works, they were in fact complete artistic statements, paintings that were signed, often dated, and, audaciously enough, sent for sale or exhibition as "finished" works of art. Organized by the Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute in association with the National Gallery, London, and the Van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam.

PHOTOGRAPHY EXPOSED at the Williams Collge Musuem of Art This exhibit highlights WCMA's photography collection with 45 examples of portraiture as culled from the museum's holdings of over 1700 photographic works of art. Important 19th and 20th century images include anonymous daguerreotypes along with work by Ansel Adams, E.J. Bellocq, Manuel Alvarez Bravo, Elliot Erwitt, Robert Frank, Lewis Hine, Gertrude Kasebier, Robert Rauschenberg, and Garry Winogrand.

PULLING PRINTS: MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY WORKS FROM THE COLLECTION This show highlights WCMA's extensive print collection -- 30 examples of modern and contemporary works from the museum's holdings of nearly 4000 prints. Works by well-known artists such as Francisco Goya and Alberto Giacometti represent some of the earliest on display, and on view for the first time are several of the museum's most recent print acquisitions by contemporary artists Judy Pfaff, Susanna Coffey, and Enrique Chagoya.

Whitney Museum

Private Tour: BitStreams

Wednesday, June 6th at 7:00 PM

Price is $15 per person.

Meet in the Whitney main entrance lobby.

(Madison Ave. between 74th and 75th Streets.)

Nothing since the invention of photography has had a greater impact on artistic practice than the emergence of digital technologies. BitStreams is a provocative and stimulating presentation of contemporary art that harnesses digital media to achieve new dimensions of artistic expression through the transformation of images, space, data and sound. The exhibition also illuminates the fascinating crossovers among media, as photography, film, video, installation, sculpture and sound develop closer connections through their common use of digital software. Among the forty-nine artists included are: Jeremy Blake, Leah Gilliam, LOT/EK, Paul D. Miller, Jim O'Rourke, Paul Pfeiffer, Marina Rosenfeld, Elliott Sharp, Diana Thater and Pamela Z. Our guide for this tour will be Caroline Smith '92, Assistant Registrar at the Whitney, who worked extensively with the artists in the BitStreams exhibit. Limited to 15.

Scavenger Hunt:

Wall Street & Old Manhattan

Saturday, July 14th

Rain Date: Saturday, July 21st

Hunt begins at 1:30 PM.

Price is $12.

Meet at the Customs House located on Bowling Green at Broadway, across from Historic Battery Park.

Dutchman and Bulls and Bears - Oh My! Back by popular demand, Watson Adventures will take you and your guests on another adventure, this time into New York's past - downtown in the Wall Street Financial District. This tailor-made hunt features history dating back to Dutch times, quirky museums and eye-popping architecture in twisty streets that constantly reveal surprising vistas. You'll investigate a crime scene at the Police Museum, look for a colonial cross-dresser in breathtaking Trinity Church, find the resting place of a losing duelist in a fire-charred graveyard, search for Native American artifacts in the stunning Custom House and more. Special guest stars include George Washington, J.P. Morgan, the Statue of Liberty, the first American saint, a giant bull and a gangster named Mock Duck. You don't need to know anything about the area - all you need is a sharp mind and a good pair of shoes! The hunt will be led by Huntmaster Bret Watson of Watson Adventures, New York's leader in humorous and challenging scavenger hunts where New York is all a game.
