WILLIAMS CLUB FALL FORUM: THE FUTURE OF BASEBALL

Saturday, November 3rd

Breakfast and Registration 9:00 AM - 10:00 AM

Panel Discussion 10:00 AM - 12:30 PM

Lunch 12:30 PM - 2:00 PM

Price is $50 per person. Limit 4 tickets per member.

The Williams Club is proud to host an engaging, unique event this November on a topic that so many hold dear to their hearts: baseball. For many, baseball is not just a game with rules, but a romantic vision of what it means to have fun; in America it is our national pastime. And yet baseball is also a business, with a history of labor disputes, great expansion, and--some might say--near collapse. The game as it is played today in the Major Leagues, has evolved tremendously since its first incarnations in the grassy lots of Manhattan and New Jersey; what course is baseball likely to take in the future?

Today's panel will include baseball experts and luminaries from the history of the game. Confirmed guests include former New York Yankees pitcher and author of Ball Four, Jim Bouton; Frank Boulton, head of the independent Atlantic League and owner of the Long Island Ducks; Williams College President Morty Schapiro, an economist and avid baseball fan; Professor Andrew Zimbalist of Smith College, an economist and expert on the economics of sports; and, Vice-President of Scheduling & Club Relations for Major League Baseball, Katy Feeney. Additional panelists will be announced in next month's newsletter.

Topics for discussion will likely include baseball's economics and labor issues, the financing of stadiums, the Designated Hitter, Pete Rose and the Hall of Fame, interleague play, the strike zone, the alleged paucity of pitching talent, the popularity or lack of popularity of baseball among young boys and girls in the U.S. (from the suburbs to the inner cities), the blossoming of the minor leagues, the length of games, the sport's history (including the controversy over its origins), diversity in the front office, etc.

Don't miss this once in a lifetime event. Reserve today.

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

An Introductory Seminar to Using the Internet

Thursday, October 4th
Cocktails begin at 6:30 PM,
Presentation at 7:00 PM
Price is $10.

If you find navigating the web difficult or don't even know what that means, then this seminar is for you. Instructor Ferdinand Poon from earlSpeak will act as your personal guide to the Internet. EarlSpeak L.L.C. specializes in bringing the basics of the Internet to older adults on a one-on-one basis, getting them on the "Information Superhighway" and connecting with family, friends and businesses. Mr. Poon will explain the basics of the Internet and show you how to access and make the most of this quickly evolving technology. Join us and learn about email, instant messaging, search engines, researching financial, medical and travel information, reading newspapers, listening to the radio, shopping and ordering gifts and much, much more.

This session will educate you on aspects of the Internet you may have no knowledge of, but will find useful whether or not you own a computer. This is a learning opportunity that will affect the way you interact with your community forever.

A Night At the Opera: Gilbert & Sullivan's The Mikado

Friday, October 12th
Dinner and Lecture at 6:00 PM Sharp,
Performance at 8:00 PM
Price is $125; Includes ticket, dinner and transportation to Lincoln Center.

Our eagerly anticipated opera night with Williams College Professor of Music Anthony Sheppard will take members and their guests to Gilbert & Sullivan's The Mikado. A magnificently musical, deliciously satirical operetta in a new Jonathan Miller production that comes to New York following rave reviews and packed houses at London's English National Opera. Come to the Club for dinner while Professor Sheppard gives one of his patented pre-opera lectures that engage both opera buffs and opera rookies alike.

Jonathan Miller's breakthrough production is "a wonderful, cockeyed, rampantly black and white romp." — The Los Angeles Press Telegram

Bring on the Reds! Kendall-Jackson Wine Tasting

Wednesday, October 17th
Program begins at 7:00 PM
Price is $15.

Tonight's Cabernet blending seminar will be an educational tasting session where you will have the opportunity to taste six regional component wines individually and then create your own personal blend. Take the opportunity to discover all of the Cabernet Sauvignon regional component wines, each one with its own set of characteristics—you'll taste benchland, hillside and mountain grown grapes from both Sonoma and Napa.

You and your guests will be given the opportunity to create your own personal blend of these components, using a pipet to accurately measure the wine and evaluate the difference between Kendall-Jackson's Cabernet Sauvignon blend and your own. This will be a fun-filled, informative event where you will enjoy the unique experience of the art of fine winemaking.

Chelsea Gallery Tour

Saturday, October 27th
Tour begins at 1:00 PM
Price is $15.
Meet at OPEN
(559 West 22nd Street at 11th Avenue)

Join Club members and guests as curator, critic and art historian Shelly Bancroft guides you through Chelsea's distinguished art galleries. The tour will begin with an overview of Chelsea's recent history, followed by a comprehensive tour of selected individual galleries. The Chelsea district houses some of the largest, most awesome gallery spaces, as well as tucked away, hard-to-find, small experimental galleries.

Ms. Bancroft served as a Curator of Exhibitions at the Boston Center for the Arts from 1997 to 2000, where she organized more than fifteen exhibitions by emerging and established artists from New York and Boston. She has lectured on the topic of contemporary art, has sat on numerous panels and art selection committees and writes frequently on the subject. Ms. Bancroft holds a master's degree in contemporary art history from the University of Washington. She is currently writing an art field guide for New York, which includes evaluative commentary on more than 200 of the city's most influential galleries.

Art lovers will enjoy this interesting and fun tour of the best Chelsea has to offer!

James Martin, Art Detective

Wednesday, November 14th
Cocktails at 6:30 PM
Presentation at 7:00 PM
Price is $10.

This evening, James Martin, founder of Orion Analytical, will take you through the process of being an "Art Detective." With his company Orion, Mr. Martin uses state of the art technology and vast experience to investigate art and artifacts, architectural finishes and manufactured goods. Orion has studied materials and objects that span more than four thousand years, from ancient Egyptian tomb artifacts to modern compact discs. Tonight, Mr. Martin will talk about Orion and the types of analytical studies they perform for institutions such as the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Christie's, Sotheby's, and the FBI.

Martin received his M.S. from the University of Delaware/Winterthur, and was a Kress Fellow at Cambridge. He shares his expertise as a Research Scientist at Williams College, is on the faculty of the Smithsonian Center for Materials Research and Education, and is also a Fellow of the American Institute for Conservation of Historic and Artistic Works.

MOVIE VOUCHERS DISCOUNT VOUCHERS ARE ONLY $7.50 EACH.

DON'T MISS IT! PROFESSOR CHARLES DEW ON THE CIVIL WAR

Monday, September 24th

Cocktails at 6:30 PM, Presentation at 7:00 PM
Price is $10; $25 with a copy of Apostles of Disunion.

Professor Colin Adams, "Why Knot?"

Wednesday, October 3rd
Cocktails at 6:30 PM
Presentation at 7:00 PM
Price is $10.

Spend the evening with one of Williams most dynamic personalities, Williams College Professor Colin Adams, discussing the past history of knots as well as their future. Knots have appeared everywhere from art, literature, and religion to sea-faring. Discover the role they play in mathematics and the applications of that role to DNA and synthetic chemistry. This will be a interactive talk with everyone in attendance getting an opportunity to try their hand at making knots.

Professor Adams is the Francis Christopher Oakley Third Century Professor of Mathematics at Williams College. He received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983 and has been at Williams since 1985. He is the author of The Knot Book, an elementary introduction to the mathematical theory of knots and co-author with Joel Hass and Abigail Thompson of How to Ace Calculus: The Streetwise Guide and How to Ace the Rest of Calculus: The Streetwise Guide, humorous supplements to the calculus curriculum. He is also the author of a mathematical humor column called Mathematically Bent which appears in the Mathematical Intelligencer.

Seth Rogovoy '82, "Rockin' the Shtetl: A Journey through Klezmer Music"

Tuesday, October 16th
Cocktails begin at 6:30 PM
Presentation at 7:00 PM
Price is $10.

The bittersweet sounds of clarinet- and violin-driven klezmer music fuel some of today's hottest avant-garde jazz. Celebrated in Jewish communities for centuries in Europe and America, Klezmer has journeyed from Old World shtetls (villages) to New World nightclubs and stages. Music critic and author Seth Rogovoy, Williams Class of 1982, will trace the evolution of klezmer from its origins as a highly codified ritual dance music to its popularization in the early 20th century as a nostalgic evocation of a lost world, through its triumphant breakthrough to the masses in the Swing era, to today's thriving contemporary klezmer revival.

Mr. Rogovoy is the author of the critically acclaimed book, The Essential Klezmer: A Music Lover's Guide to Jewish Roots and Soul Music and has been the music critic for the Berkshire Eagle for over a decade. He is also a faculty adjunct at Williams College, where he teaches in the Winter Study program.

Ghost Dog: The Way of the Samurai

Written and directed by Jim Jarmusch

STARRING FORREST WHITAKER
Screening Tuesday, October 23rd

Jim Jarmusch is a master at telling stories that soar, while staying grounded in the forces of nature. In Ghost Dog: The Way of the Samurai, Forrest Whitaker is an African-American hitman who lives alone, raises pigeons, and lives by the code of an ancient Samurai text, The Hagakure. He goes by the name Ghost Dog and works, unseen, for his retainer—a member of the local Italian mob and a man to whom he owes his life. When unexpected circumstances on a hit lead the mob bosses to turn against Ghost Dog, he is forced to choose between his life and his code. Ghost Dog is a crime drama that grips without the use of excessive force. An excellent blend of gangster film, samurai epic and New York Story. Made in 1999; MPAA Rating: R; Runtime: 115 minutes.

Requiem For a Dream

Directed by Darren Aronofsky

Screening Tuesday, November 6th
Film begins at 6:30 PM

One of the most notable features of the previous year, Requiem for a Dream is a story of four people whose lives are devastated by drug addiction. Brooklyn-native Darren Aronofsky describes the story as a "monster movie" except that in this case, the monster wins. Starring Ellen Burstyn who received an Academy Award nomination for her portrayal of Sarah Goldfarb, Jared Leto, Jennifer Connelly, and Marlon Wayans. MPAA Rating: R; Runtime 100 minutes.

"Be warned: it's a downer, and a knockout."

DEPARTMENT NEWS

From the General Manager's Desk

Dear Members,

I hope everyone has enjoyed the summer and is ready to begin an exciting season with us at the Club. We have some wonderful new programs, including the blockbuster Baseball event in November, and the return of some old Club traditions including the Club Table in the Grill Room, the Club Classics on our dining menus and with the arrival of Fall, jackets and ties return to the Formal Dining Room. This year we hope to get members more involved in the activities of the Club; we need your comments, critiques and wish list items so that we are positioned to accommodate your needs, today and in the future.

I want to thank everyone for the wonderful reception I have received since becoming the General Manager. As your new manager, I am taking this opportunity to advance and create a home-away-from-home atmosphere at the Williams Club; I want to ensure that you have a Club that provides the finest quality services and facilities in an environment enjoyed by all.

I look forward to hearing from you and seeing you around the Clubhouse.

Gabrielle Tancredi

Formal Dress in the Oakley Dining Room

As the summer comes to a close and the leaves begin to turn, it's time once again for jackets and ties and formal attire in the Club's Oakley Dining Room. The Grill Room remains business casual as always.

New Email Newsletter & Weekly Email Update

There is so much activity at the Club these days, that it's frankly hard to keep up with. To help Club members stay on top of all the new programs and special offers, we have crossed the digital frontier and developed a monthly email newsletter as well as a short weekly email update.

If you haven't received email from the Club in the past month, it's because we don't have your email address. There are two simple and convenient ways to update your record:

1 - Call the Membership Services department at the Club [212-697-5300 x208] and give us your email address, or

2 - Visit the Williams Club Online at www.williamsclub.org and use the Member Account Update page where you can update all of your personal information including your email address and email preferences.

Our monthly e-newsletter contains all of the information published in the paper newsletter, plus there are exclusive promotions and an occasional giveaway available only to e-newsletter subscribers. Weekly updates give you a "head's up" on upcoming events, and also offer last minute announcements that come in too late for paper newsletter publication. Both emails arrive at your inbox in an easy-to-read text format, with a convenient "Reply Reservation Form" so that you can reserve for Club events with just one click.

Get the most out of your Williams Club membership and subscribe to the e-newsletter and weekly update today!
