Members Holiday Party

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13TH
5:00 PM TO 8:00 PM

Don't you love the holidays in New York? Sniffly red noses, gloved hands holding hot chocolate, snow boots and sleds in the park, carolling, strolling down Fifth Avenue to the department store windows, Santa Claus on every corner; the magic of the season is everywhere you turn. At the Williams Club, we host a number of private holiday parties for members and their businesses, but we want to carve out a special night to spend with you and yours.

The Williams Club cordially invites you, your friends and family to our annual holiday celebration. In the Whittlesey Room enjoy the sophisticated jazz stylings of the Ed Adams Orchestra as you sip warm apple cider, eggnog and homemade Bailey's. Down the hall decked with holly, you'll find the Executive Chef's holiday hors d'oeuvre and classic holiday dessert display. Fa la la! Finally, cap off the night by hanging your own gingerbread man on the Williams Club Christmas Tree to help us celebrate the holiday spirit in the traditional Club fashion.

TOYS FOR TOTS

We will also be accepting unwrapped toys to be donated as gifts through the US Marine Corps Reserve's Toys-For-Tots Program. Toys may be donated that night or any day before Friday, December 20th at the Front Desk.

THE GOURMET TASTE

TASTE OF THE TOWN NIGHTS IN JANUARY

Back by popular demand, Taste of the Town nights continue this month and throughout the year.

LUTECE

There is no better place to start the New Year than with a classic: the legendary Lutece with world-renowned Chef Andre Soltner. After 30 years at Lutece, Chef Andre recently retired and now spends his time with his wife traveling the world giving seminars and speeches. I have had the pleasure of meeting and cooking with Andre on several occasions and tonight's menu items will be prepared using his recipes. Tonight's menu will feature:

Soup de Poisson (a Provencal Fish Soup)
Ballotine de Sole Sauce Emerunde (a Fillet of Sole with Salmon Mousse)
Brandade de Morue (Salt Cod Rillet)
Poitrine de Canard Sautee aux Pommes en l'Air (Breast of Duck with Apples)
Tarte Citron Mama (a Lemon Almond Tart)

Wednesday, January 15th. Reserve seating from 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM. Price is $35. Call the Front Desk for Reservations.

PATRIA

For Patria, Douglas Rodriguez creates a nuevo latino cuisine that borrows freely across borders. In the age old criollo tradition, he's cooking with an ever evolving hybrid cuisine where the old constantly flirts with the new. Chef Rodriguez is a graduate of my own alma mater, Johnson & Wales University. For this evening's fare expect:

Grilled Mussels with Banana Leaves and Saffron Lemon Butter
Pork Tenderloin with Aji Amarillo-Pineapple Mojo
Rum Barbeque Black Beans
Double Chocolate Coconut Smoreos

Wednesday, January 29th. Reserve seating from 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM. Price is $35. Call the Front Desk for Reservations.

THE NUTCRACKER PERFORMANCE & BRUNCH

Once again the Williams Club hosts you and your family for an unforgettable, magical afternoon in the city. Start the day at the Club with a gourmet, child-friendly brunch and then get whisked away by a private bus to Lincoln Center. You and your children will be overwhelmed and amazed by the grace and beauty of George Balanchine's The Nutcracker.

The Williams Club is also pleased to offer you the opportunity to order a custom-made Nutcracker Pin, designed by a Club member at Margot Townsend exclusively for the Smithsonian Institute. The price is $42. Please ask for the pin when reserving.

Behind the Line with the Executive Chef, CEC

Dear Members,

Last year at this time I wrote that in December I'm a very popular guy with calls of "Chef, we have an add-on," "Chef, the party went up," "Chef, I need more rolls," "Chef, I need, I need, I need..." etc.

Well I have needs, too. I need members, their family, their friends, their associates and guests to visit this Clubhouse, enjoy our food and beverage service, and make me happy.

I'm like Sly Stallone in the Rocky movies. The more he got hit, the better he did. Hits to me are the reservations and banquet orders, the waiters breathing down my neck, the add-ons, the parties that go up. I enjoy the excitement and the challenge. There's no place I'd rather be than in an action-packed Kitchen cooking food. And this year, with new Kitchen staff I am confident that all your events and meals will be a knock out.

Enjoy the holidays. I know I will,

Christopher James

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

An Evening with Ashraf Jehangir Qazi Ambassador of Pakistan to the United States

In December, the Williams Club will host Ashraf Jehangir Qazi, the newly appointed Ambassador of Pakistan to the United States. Before assuming his present appointment, Ambassador Qazi was Pakistan's High Commissioner to India. Prior to that, he held a number of high-ranking positions in the diplomatic service of Pakistan, including Ambassador to Russia, China, the former East Germany and Syria. Ambassador Qazi's extensive experience in dealing directly at the highest levels of international relations enables him to provide first-hand insights into many vital foreign policy issues. This event is co-sponsored by the Oxford Alumni Association of New York.

Monday, December 16th. Reception at 6:00 PM, Presentation at 7:00 PM. Price is $10.

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Opera Night with Tony Sheppard Mozart's The Abduction from the Seraglio

The Williams Club is proud to offer members once again the opportunity to enjoy New York's fabulous Metropolitan Opera on a whole new level. Start off at the Club with a gourmet dinner hosted by Professor of Music Anthony Sheppard. While you dine, Professor Sheppard will play excerpts from tonight's opera, give you an overview of the plot and the musical highlights, and put the work into a historical and artistic context that will add new meaning and understanding to your experience of the performance.

After dessert you'll be whisked away to Lincoln Center where your seats in the Dress Circle will await you. This program is one of our most popular, so be sure to reserve early. Whether you're an opera aficionado or just an amateur enthusiast, we're sure you'll enjoy this evening of dining and music.

Friday, January 24th. Dinner begins at 6:00 PM sharp. Performance at 8:00 PM. Price is $130. Includes dinner, lecture, ticket and transportation to Lincoln Center. Limited to 24. Non-cancelable.

CAREERS & BUSINESS

Presentation Skills Workshop

How words are spoken can be as important as the words themselves. In this interactive workshop, participants speak in front of the group and offer one another constructive criticism. Leading the session, the principals of the corporate communications firm Syntaxis highlight some of the most common mistakes speakers make - and recommend strategies to correct them. Topics range from voice and body language to content and preparation. If time permits, selected participants will be videotaped for the group's review.

Manhattan-based Syntaxis provides communications training and writing services to corporations throughout North America. Clients include Merrill Lynch, Fidelity Investments, Booz Allen Hamilton, Crain's New York Business, Microsoft and Clifford Chance. Brandt Johnson brings eight years of investment banking experience and a professional acting background to his work for Syntaxis. He has a B.A. from Williams (1987) and an M.B.A. in finance from New York University. Ellen Jovin is a former college writing and speech instructor with a B.A. from Harvard College and an M.A. in comparative literature from UCLA.

Please join Brandt and Ellen for a workshop that's sure to increase your potential as a speaker, whether for business or just cocktail parties.

Tuesday, January 14th. Reception at 6:30 PM. Workshop begins at 7:00 PM. Price is $10. Limited to 15.

DIRECT FROM CAMPUS

A Cappella Night with the EPHLATS & ACCIDENTALS

Each January we gather a troupe of singing Williams students to brave the Winter weather and drive down to the Big Apple for a night of singing and fun at the Williams Club. This year we welcome two of Williams finest a cappella groups, the co-ed Eplhats and the all female Accidentals.

Don't miss this zany brand of college entertainment. You'll be swooning, laughing, toe-tapping and maybe even dancing by the end of the night. A great chance to catch up with old friends from campus, or just to meet some young and enthusiastic performers.

Friday, January 17th. Doors open at 6:30 PM, concert begins at 7:00 PM. Price is $10.

THE MEMBERS CORNER

Thanks for the memories.

Well, the time has come to say so long. I'm hanging up my jackets and ties, turning in my editor's desk, and finally going to keep the same hairstyle for a while. After five years, at the Williams Club, I'm moving to the Northwest Coast of Spain to write what I hope is the next great American novel. It'll take a little longer than your average newsletter column, but I'm up for it. With any luck, the next time you see my name in this publication, it will be for my first book signing (reserve early!). Needless to say, I'm pretty excited about the move. But leaving is always difficult, and before I go I want to take this opportunity to say thank you to all of you whom I've had the pleasure of meeting over the years.

Thank you for sharing such a wonderful set of experiences with me at the Club. I have the satisfaction of looking back on so many terrific memories from this place, maybe some that you remember as well: our Blow Off the Hamptons Happy Hour, driving back from the Williamstown Theater Festival after the bus broke down, the Millennium Party DJ, Craig Virden's heckled introduction of Nick Dunne, the Faculty Forums on Art & Great Books, so many Thanksgivings, spirited Kendall Jackson wine tastings, the Seinfeld Happy Hour Trivia Contest that no one wanted to win, Opera Nights with Tony Sheppard, Drew Bunting's concert, Mitch Stripling's play, Barbara Prey's gallery openings, the Sydney Fashion Show, Wzystan Getz' marijuana talk, Whitney Museum tours with Veronica Roberts, Ed Adams Orchestra gigs, Wendy Shalit's book talk, and then there were the lectures: Bob Jackall, Leyla Rouhi, Mike Lewis, Barbara Corcoran, Tom Krens, Arthur Levitt, David Eppel, Peter Murphy, President Shapiro, President Vogt, Susan Engel, Phillipe de Montebello, Geoffrey Canada, Roscoe Brown, Laurie Heatherington, Deb Brothers, Tim Cook, Steve Fix, Ed Burger, Coach Sam, Mark Taylor, Lane Faison, Tim Cook, Jack Carew, EJ Johnson, Jim Shepard, Larry Graver, Mark Reinhardt, Chip Lovett, Georges Dreyfus, Whitney Stoddard....

Admittedly, this column reads a little like a high school yearbook page ("FrankieV 4Evuh!"), but perhaps there's some logic to that--the Williams Club has been like a graduate school for me. Five years later, I don't have any fancy degree to show, but I did sit through a lot of lectures, made new friends, discovered new interests, and learned a lot about myself. I'll miss this place, but I guess it's time for me to graduate. Thanks for the memories. Cheers!

CATERING & PRIVATE EVENTS

Like so many New Yorkers, the thought of the approaching holiday season brings a smile to my face. Even though it comes and goes every year, Christmas is a holiday that I will never be too old for. I look forward to picking out and decorating the tree, shopping for the perfect gifts for family, putting Christmas cards in the mail, attending cocktail parties and baking sweets and goodies that I only allow myself to eat during the holidays.

My favorite tradition is hosting an annual holiday dinner party. Each year I invite my friends to my downtown apartment for an evening in which I treat them to a home cooked meal, a few good bottles of wine and we enjoy each other's company. I hope my guests are looking forward to this evening as much as I am. To me, it's the most sensible way I can show each of them how much I appreciate their friendship, and I think it means a bit more than any gift I could buy.

If you think it's a good way to wish your friends and family a happy holiday, or just like to throw dinner parties, but lack either the space or the culinary knowhow, why don't you consider letting us here at the Williams Club handle the dinner for you? The Club's cozy size, intimate atmosphere, and attentive service will make your guests feel right at home. All you have to do is send out the invitations, select a menu and show up. I promise your guests will love the idea and Chef Chris and I won't let you down!

FROM THE GENERAL MANAGER

Dear Members,

As we close the year I want to take this opportunity to thank you again for your support; because of the success of the assessment and your continued patronage here we are now entering the new year with a bright future. You have enabled us to renovate and update the catering and hotel rooms, the members lounge, to add security surveillance and to increase our services to you.

We have some wonderful events this month that always bring out the holiday cheer: our Nutcracker Performance and Brunch, the Holiday Brunch and our ever popular Members Holiday Party where we are joined by the Marine Corp. Reserves “Toys for Tots” (happy birthday USMC!–November 10th). I hope to see you all there.

Five years have come and gone and all I can remember is a platinum blond college graduate walking into the Club with “his” bright ideas on how things really should run.

“His way” was a chance we were willing to take and sure enough we’ve been thankful ever since. Frank Vigorito has been our editor-in-chief, membership services director, marketing director, IT director, and on occasion our “what’s the latest in hair” model (once a bad judgement call caused him to return to the salon the next day to change it back). His service to the Club, to the Board and to you has been a success and he has done it with style and grace. He has brought the Club wonderful programs and talent—he even discovered a few. His presence will be missed by all of us here at the Club! So I wish my colleague and friend farewell and all the best on his exciting journey in life (and I’m not just saying this so he dedicates his first book to me).

On behalf of the Williams Club staff I want to extend to all of you a wonderful holiday season.

Happy New Year!

Gabrielle Tancredi
General Manager
